

"Raw and honest lyrics with building indie/folk sound in the Noah Kahan soundscape"

LOS ANGELES, CA - Martina Armour releases single "Love to Gold" on April 12th

"Love to Gold" is an building indie folk track infused with folk/rock colors, organic instruments and upfront vulnerable vocals, showcasing Martina Armour's signature sound and musical style dynamically. With 11 previous releases under her belt, Martina Armour is a three time semi-finalist in International Songwriting Competition, including this song.

Single "Love to Gold" is produced by Ryan Corn (Nashville).

Armour: "'Love to Gold" is about that situationship that you wish was a bit more than just that. Where you realize you've been giving and giving but get nothing in return so you leave before they do".

"Love to Gold" is available on 4/12 on all streaming platforms. Prior to the release date, please find a private link to the single here.

Martina Armour is playing a show on 4/9 to promote the release and is available for interviews and features. For more information, please visit www.martinaarmour.com or email contact@martinaarmour.com
