

MARTINA ARMOUR BARES HER SOUL IN HER DEBUT EP “WHAT IT FEELS LIKE”

LOS ANGELES, CA. Martina Armour bares her soul in her debut EP “What It Feels Like” dropping September 3rd. In August she will tease her fans with a montage video showcasing the emotive depths of her songwriting. Martina confirms that this EP is “This is the rawest and most honest collection of songs I’ve written and I’ve never been this excited to share new music!”. She recorded her emotionally captivating singles “On the Run” and “The Knife” at the legendary Village Studios in Los Angeles, marking a pivotal moment in her blossoming career. “What It Feels Like” features Armour’s stunningly smooth rich vocals and is a culmination of Martina’s life experiences, relationships, and inner world fully on display for all to see. Her bravery as an artist is magnetic and allows the listener to feel understood—a superpower Martina’s music holds like no other.

Each individual song will have its own vignette featuring Martina’s awe-striking lyrics and listeners can expect to go through the journey of the heart and all of the expressions love can take us on. Martina expertly crafts songs that feel like you needed to hear them, and this EP is the perfect time to listen in on her life’s wisdom. To this date, Martina has 7 singles under her belt and “What It Feels Like” will serve as a conclusion to a chapter in her life as she excitedly embarks upon the next with new music to come.

“What It Feels Like” will be available to pre-order Aug 23rd at midnight.
